Katy's collection is in constant flux; she's always finding new favorites. Artist list includes those represented at printing.

THE COLLECTION

The Katy Beh Contemporary Jewelry collection not only honors the rich tradition of giving and receiving jewelry, but also those who excel in this luxurious art. Often, the gift of jewelry celebrates a significant event in life such as a birthday, a wedding, the birth of a child, or an anniversary. Each piece of hand-crafted jewelry at Katy Beh expresses personal visions of each artisan, yielding treasures that are as special and unique as the occasions they represent.

THE GALLERY

Katy Beh Contemporary Jewelry is a welcome alternative for today's jewelry lover. Owner Katy Beh recognizes the worth of jewelry transcends the value of its materials; its most precious quality being the memories it holds and gives. Katy personally selects every piece showcased in her collection from the talents of internationally renowned designers and up-and-coming artisans. Her classical training demands superior design and craftsmanship; her modern eye insists on fresh style.

Located on Magazine Street, one of New Orleans' greatest shopping venues, the Gallery is relaxed and elegant, complementing the intimate quality of each piece. Locals are loyal to Katy's warmth and expertise. Visitors are impressed with her friendly smile, refined taste and benchmark standards.

The Gallery and Collection have been featured in exclusive jewelry industry publications, as well as Lucky Magazine, Elle Decor, New Orleans Homes & Lifestyles, Cue and Wish.
